

#CHUNG, Helene Shouting from China Penguin, 1988.

The fascinating autobiographical account of the ABC's first woman correspondent in Beijing who experienced frustrations, hardship and triumphs as she coped with China's ambivalent attitude to overseas Chinese. A compelling insight into life in post-Mao China which is part political commentary, part sociological treatise.